FUNDING FOR HER SON:

COUPLE SELL HOME TO HELP IMPRISONED SON

By Paul Giles

A COUPLE have had to sell their home to fund legal fees to help free their son from a Spanish prison.

Kyle Thain, 24, and his friend James Harris, 29, were arrested in connection with a fight in a bar in Pilar De Horaddada, in Alicante, in July.

Police have accused the duo of attacking two men.

Both Thain and Harris claim they can prove they were not in the bar at the time of the attack.

Although they have not been charged, Spanish law allows prosecutors to hold suspects for up to four years.

Mother of Kyle Thain, Sharon Harris, said both families have spent £25,000 in legal fees and travel to visit their children.

She and her partner have now sold their house in Brunswick Road, Southchurch, for almost £255,000.

She said: "He's innocent. It's not in him to commit such a crime.

"We didn't really want to move but as my daughter has said, it is only bricks and mortar."

Mrs Harris spoke of her frustration with the legal system and also expressed dismay that people can be held in prison for so long without being charged.

She described her son – an estate agent based on Canvey – as a 'cheeky chappy'.

She added: "We're behind Kyle all the way. He needs our support as he hasn't done anything wrong. We need to continue to campaign for him.

"It wasn't an easy decision to sell as it was a hard thing to do."

A spokesman for the Foreign Office confirmed officials were aware of the situation and were monitoring progress.

Southend's councillor for culture and tourism, Derek Jarvis said the selection of membership fees at the centre would be affordable for all.

He said: "The new fitness suite is a fantastic opportunity for people to get fit and healthy."

"The touch consoles provide step-by-step support and advice so that anyone can join and get the support they need to succeed on their journey to fitness."

Airport to tighten security after protesters try to access runway

By Matthew Stanton

SOUTHEND Airport has vowed to review security after protesters fighting expansion plans tried gaining access to the airport's runway.

Bosses claimed they would look into security after campaigners from two groups, Plane Stupid and Climate Rush, accessed the site's perimeter on Saturday.

Essex Police arrested a number of people following the incident at around 9am.

A spokesman for Southend Airport said: "Measures currently in place ensured the runway was closed prior to people getting on to it."

London Southend Airport has been in discussions for some time with the appropriate authorities about having the footpath diverted.

"As with all airports, security arrangements are under constant review."

Southend Airport claimed no flights were impacted by the protest.

Essex Police confirmed five men and 10 women were arrested for allegedly entering a restricted zone at an airport and have been released on police bail until November 30.

The groups had planned to put solar panels on the runway and perform a dance routine dressed as pilots and cabin crew.

Campaigners are fighting Southend Airport plans, which have planning permission, to extend its runway by 300m to allow larger passenger aircraft to be used.

The Stobart Group, which owns the airport, aims to have two million passengers a year passing through its terminal, by 2020.

A spokeswoman for the protesters said: "Southend Council say the expansion will bring jobs but investment in renewable energy would create many more jobs without damaging the climate."

"What we need is solar power not plane power."

"The bigger runway is bad for climate change, bad for local residents under the flight path and is not needed to help the local economy."

Shop is back in the frame

By Paul Giles

A SHOP owner in Southend is making it easier and cheaper for people to get their favourite pictures framed.

Andy Gregory, owner of Frame It, in Queens Road, moved premises from Rochford to the central location in Southend several weeks ago.

With businesses partner Mark Powell, the pair are offering a drop and shop service.

Shoppers will be able to take any pictures they want to the framers, go shopping, then pick up the finished frame on their way home.

Andy is glad to be back in town after moving from the old York Market Road site to Rochford, and now near the Post Office in Southend.

He said: "The fact we are still going through the recession proves we are offering a quality service."

"We are aware people don't have a lot of money, so we are offering a cheaper service than any other framing shop."

"Most framers are charging about £75 a frame but we start from £25 so we create more business therefore making it cheaper for customers."

Mark explained the pair has also seen a rise in people ordering prints from the Internet.

He said: "We have set up a service where the picture can be sent straight to us and we frame it then contact the client once it is completed."

"With Christmas coming up we're hoping that it will be a busy time."

Floral fashion on show

By Paul Giles

THE BEECROFT Gallery is holding a Flora Fancy exhibition until mid December.

It will feature examples of how fashion has been used to embrace the power of flowers in the fashion world.

Hidden gems from Southend's costume collection will be on display.

These include 18th Century gentleman's waistcoats and floral bathing suits.

Clare Fox, from the gallery in Station Road, Westcliff, said: "It explores two hundred years of fashion inspired and influenced by flowers."

"We also have our winter exhibition upstairs with some members of the Essex Craft Association, who have lovely items for sale."

Plans considered to force officers into retirement

By Paul Peterson

EXPERIENCED police officers in Essex could be forced into retirement.

Bosses at the county's police force have refused to rule out using the Police Pensions Regulations 1987, which means 88 officers with at least 30 years pensionable service in Essex could be 'required to retire'.

Police officers cannot legally be made redundant, but several forces in the country have already backed proposals to use Regulation A19.

But a spokeswoman for Essex Police told the Yellow Advertiser: "At the present time, we are not planning to use Regulation A19 to retire any officers, although this may be considered in the future."

Essex Police is cutting 388 policing posts and reducing officer numbers from 3,636 to 3,248 as part of a bid to save £41million within three years.

But bosses argue that the overall reduction will be achieved through retirements and transfers to other police forces and that there will actually be more officers working in the neighbourhood policing area.

Figures from the country's largest trade union, Unison, have revealed that 3,072 police jobs have already been lost across the country. The union said that a total of 18,000 would be cut nationally by 2015.

Heather Wakefield, from Unison, warned the current level of policing cuts were the 'thin end of the wedge'.

She added: "In the rush to clear the deficit, caused by the bankers, the government has lost sight of protecting communities."

"It is not thinking about the real cost of the cuts."

The A19 regulation means that police below chief officer rank with 30 years service can be 'required to retire', but the force must show that keeping them would not be in the 'general interests of efficiency'.

Church wins accolade for accessible website

By Paul Giles

A LEIGH church has won an award for making its website accessible for blind and partially sighted people.

The Leigh Road Baptist Church (LRBC), in Marguerite Drive, won the Accessibility Award category at the Premier Christian Media's 5th Annual Christian New Media Awards (CNMAs).

The plaudits came after a team from the church worked with local company ECRU to redesign the site.

David Elcock, a community worker for the church, explained work started in April this year.

He said: "Social media plays a big part in the LRBC.org.uk website, with Twitter and Facebook integration, embodying the spirit of a church that goes out and meets the community where they are."

Matt Williams, managing director of ECRU, was delighted to work with the group.

He said: "We experienced a real meeting of minds when it came to the spirit underlying the project, with a shared focus on fostering communication with real people, whatever their age or ability."

David continued: "Working with Matt and Sarah of ECRU to create the new site this year has been a joy. "We are really happy that it has already been recognised for its accessibility through the Premier CNMAs.

"ECRU have been excellent in helping LRBC with their expertise in creating a truly useful and accessible website that works for us as a church in our attempt to reach out to all the people of our community."

DIAMOND: Samuel and Freda Leaman, who celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary.

Couple celebrate diamond wedding

A COUPLE celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary last week.

Samuel and Freda Leaman, both 80-years-old, met dancing at the Kursal and married at Ceylon Road Synagogue, in Westcliff, on October 28, 1951.

They have three children, seven grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

Samuel said the secret to a long marriage was having a good sense of humour.

He said: "It's also give and take. I give and she takes."

The couple celebrated their wedding anniversary with a meal with family at the Westcliff Hotel on Saturday evening.

Inquest rules overdose caused woman's death

By Paul Giles

A WOMAN who was found on a derelict allotment site last year overdosed on Zopiclone while she was suffering from depression.

Jacqueline Jane Rheeder's body was found on the disused allotment site that backs onto Norwich Avenue, on Wednesday, March 10, 2010.

The 41-year-old had left her home in Westbury Road, Southend, on Monday, March 1, following a row with a family member.

At 11pm that night family members reported her as missing to the police.

In the next ten days police carried out searches in the area and used the police helicopter to trace her.

During searches of the house, police and the family discovered she had left with an amount of Zopiclone.

Jacqueline, a care worker, who was born in South Africa, was prescribed Zopiclone as she suffered from depression.

LOTS OF FUN: Lakeside's 21st birthday celebrations. Picture by Marin Dalton

Lakeside turns 21

By Paul Peterson

SHOPPERS helped Lakeside celebrate its 21st birthday on Tuesday.

They enjoyed an all-day party to mark the day the shopping centre was officially opened by Princess Alexandra back in 1990.

Centre manager, Paul Lancaster, said: "We're absolutely delighted to be able to celebrate this milestone with our visitors and our staff."

The celebrations also proved a perfect time to look to the future as Lakeside's owners, Capital Shopping Centres, unveiled plans for a £180m expansion including 30 to 40 new shops and an integrated transport hub.

Mr Lancaster said everyone was very excited about the development.

He added: "The project is a major statement of our confidence in Lakeside and we hope it will further raise the profile of Thurrock and other local businesses."

"The transport hub will make using public transport easier, with shorter and sheltered links between bus and rail."

Mr Lancaster said that similar Capital Shopping Centre projects, like the Metrocentre in Gateshead and Newcastle's Eldon Square, had successfully stimulated the local economy.

The Lakeside expansion could create around 1,000 jobs during the construction phase and 2,500 jobs once the development is complete.

A planning application for the new Lakeside development is expected to be submitted by Capital Shopping Centre by the end of December.

Shoppers are being invited to take a look at the development plans by logging on to www.lakeside.uk.com/whats-on/news/have-your-say

Jason Burrows, a farm contractor, and Jon Lambert, a landscape officer, found her body, while they were costing the derelict allotment site for clearance on Wednesday, March 10.

In the inquest at Southend Court House last Thursday, Mr Burrows told the court the pair first thought someone had dumped a mannequin in the undergrowth of the site.

He said: "I asked John if it was a mannequin or a body."

"We were about ten feet away and couldn't see any chest movement."

Dr Ben Swift, who read out a medical report, said Jacqueline, who left two daughters behind, may have drunk an amount of alcohol with the tablets.

Coroner Dr Peter Dean concluded her death was caused by Zopiclone overdose.

He said: "It's likely the toxicity of the drugs caused her breathing to slow and finally stop with out her being aware."

Library invites pupils to visit

By Paul Giles

SCHOOLS across the borough have been invited to bring their year three classes for an introduction to the library and an opportunity to receive a free membership card.

Southend Borough Libraries are trialling a new method of inviting classes down to libraries to see what they can offer and understand the difference between fiction and non-fiction.

Children will also be given the choice to join the library.

Greg Simmonds, library development officer, said libraries would give children support in their literacy and life-long learning.

He said: "Libraries

provide fantastic resources for young people and we are keen to broaden our work with schools in the area."

For more information, contact Southend Library on 01702 534100.

INVITATION: Greg Simmonds with books in Southchurch Library. Picture by Mark Cleveland

PARTY: Tilly Rogers with son Tom, his partner Myrna, daughter Sylvia, daughter-in-law Ann and other son, Tony.

Picture by Mark Cleveland

Happy 100th birthday Tilly

A GREAT great-grandmother has celebrated her 100th birthday on Canvey Island.

Tilly Rogers, from Eastwood, joined 150 of her friends and family in Smallgains Hall, in Smallgains Road, on Saturday.

The mother-of-three held a speech in front of relatives including her children, Tom, 75, Tony, 73, and Sylvia, 68.

Retired cook, Tom, from Canvey, said: "The party was brilliant, everyone had a good time."

"Mum had a few sherries and a dance, she may be 100 but she has never acted her age."

"My mother has a wicked sense of humour. She is always out and the only thing that slows her down are her legs. Her brain is as sharp as a razorblade."

The former cook and cleaner was born in Leytonstone, East London, in 1911, and had five sisters and one brother.

Youngest sister, Eileen, is the only sibling remaining and she also attended the celebration.

During the Second World War, Tilly would frequently visit Canvey as a holiday with her husband, Albert, who passed away in 1964 aged 64.

She then moved to Eastwood in 2001.

Tilly has four grandchildren, Peter, Andrew, Angela and Dawn, and nine great grandchildren. She also has five great great grandchildren, the youngest aged just seven months.

Vandals spray bus stop with offensive graffiti

By Matthew Stanton

'MINDLESS idiots' have sprayed symbols once used by the Nazi party over the bus stop at Benfleet Station.

Colin MacLean, from Canvey, contacted Castle Point Council on Friday after Swastika emblems were placed on seats near Benfleet train station, in Brook Road.

He feared the insignias would upset residents, especially the elderly.

Colin said: "This is disgrace, the symbols were sprayed no less than 100 yards from Benfleet's war memorial.

"The brutes who did this are mindless idiots.

"People using the bus stop are elderly residents who experienced the terrors of World War II. These tags are more than just graffiti."

Swastikas were the symbol of the Nazi Party and the rise to power of Adolf Hitler in the 1930s.

The symbol became strongly associated with Nazism and related ideologies such as Fascism and white supremacism.

The Swastika has been outlawed in Germany.

Castle Point Council sent a team down to clean the bus stop following Mr MacLean's phone call.

Train operator c2c, which run services at Benfleet train station, also sent got workers to check seats on platforms.

A spokesman said: "We have investigated this issue and we have not found any evidence of offensive graffiti on our station at Benfleet.

"However, we do take the issue of graffiti very seriously and check our stations regularly for signs of graffiti within our leasehold area.

"Offensive graffiti is removed as swiftly as possible."

Boffins battle it out in contest

YOUNGSTERS got their thinking caps on to take part in a top competition this week.

The Explore Learning Centre, at Brompton Walk in Lakeside, took part in a nationwide search for the best young mathematicians in the UK.

Entrants were presented with a mathematical problem and the teams judged on their ability to solve it logically.

Heather Garrick, from Explore Learning, said: "It's great to see so many children excited about maths."

The National Young Mathematicians competition started yesterday (Tuesday).

The top five regional winners will compete for the title in the final at the University of Cambridge in

Celebrating Diwali

By Paul Giles

HUNDREDS of people were celebrating Diwali last week in Southend.

As part of the festival of lights, which marks the most important date of the Hindu new-year, the BAPS Shri Swaminarayan Mandir temple opened its doors to visitors.

They witnessed the Rangoli, a decoration spread across the floor to divide the temple made of spices and petals.

The main attraction over the festival was the 'Annakut', a mountain of food created as an offering to Hindu gods.

All the dishes were prepared by devotees and shared out at the end of Diwali as a traditional form of thanksgiving.

Sunita Kachala, said she loved the festival because it 'brought everyone together'.

She said: "It's such a beautiful festival where we all come together as one family and give thanks."

"It's not just Hindus that have come along either. There have been people of all faiths coming in to the temple to worship."

"I think you know you've got a good thing when you want to share it with everyone."

Priya Patel, 22, from Woodgrange Drive, in Southchurch, who has grown up in Southend, believed faith was still important to people.

She said: "I think in this day and age people have busy lives."

"But this time of year is a time when we can catch up with everyone - it's really refreshing.

"Personally I think religion is important in people's lives as they can have ups and downs."

Religion provides that stability for people.

"It's also there to find peace and draw your strength from it too."

Campaigner calls for council to reject hospice application

By Paul Giles

A GREEN belt campaigner has called on councillors to reject plans for £15 million hospice at Belton Way, in Leigh.

Mike King, a member of Save our Greenbelt, said the area would be better left as grassland after the application from Havens Hospice.

He said: "Somebody somewhere had this idea of building down on that bit of land and it has just flowed from that."

"I don't think people have stood back and asked if it's a good idea."

A spokesman for the Havens Hospice said managers had researched numerous locations and felt that, subject to planning permission being granted, it was an ideal site.

The hospice has an option to purchase the land subject to a decision being made.

Southend Council is due to consider the plans some time later this year.

Opinion and readers' letters

Hospital parking is a rip-off

FOR main entrance parking at the Southend University Hospital, one has to pre-purchase a parking ticket from a machine sited away from the hospital entrance which does not give change.

This is a tremendous rip-off. The basic charge is £2.50 and most have to insert a £5 note. I know - I've witnessed it when lining up to do the same. In this day and age machines can be installed which do dispense change. A colossal scam!

Do not let the few spoil Fair Havens application

JULIAN Ware-Lane - prospecting from an impeccable psephologically hopeful Labour Party source as ever - now adds his anti-Green Belt hospice views to those of the Conservative Leader of Southend Council, Nigel Holdcroft, and on-site

Liberal Democrat Councillor Peter Wexham, who - despite actually being a substitute member of the Development Control Committee ostensibly forbidden to discuss the issue - has no qualms whatsoever warning us hereabouts not to buy the 'slick talk of salesmen using other people's money to build an architects dream' on an end bit of Green Belt by Leigh Station. (YA Oct 26th)

A political full house standing four-square against this planning application before it has even been considered by the Development Control Committee then, or a three-card trick dealing Fair Havens a dodgy hand it will find unduly difficult to now win?

For I cannot believe that this contentious issue - contentious, in truth, only to a small group of over-emotionally-charged local Leigh residents, who wrongly hold the Green Belt utterly sacrosanct in all circumstances, which it is not and never has been or Southend United would never have been allowed a new stadium on it at the other end of town - has not already been covertly discussed up, down and across council chambers, corridors, canteen, stairs, lifts, bogs and beyond, by councillors of all shades since their leader's overt intervention.

This when 3,000 Leigh residents have signed the 20,000-strong petition supporting Fair Havens' plans - amongst them Les Sawyer, chairman of Leigh Residents Association - 250 of these being from the immediate vicinity when the protesters managed only fifty at a well-publicised summer gathering with their pets at the place in question.

Moreover, anyone using the footpath - which will remain intact - from the end of the dogs' toilet currently passing itself off as Castle Drive onward to Hadleigh Castle, Benfleet Downs and Station may well think the area not only much-improved by a discrete, two-storey, tree-shielded, lawned and landscaped free community hospice but actually protected by its presence from ever-present rapacious money-making high-rise development prevalent in this area into the bargain.

Much like - four miles on - the marina and Barge Gladys stand guard at the other end of this lovely Green Belt buffer zone between the boroughs of Castle Point and Southend and there's no good reason on God's good green earth why this should be the thin end of the development wedge, as is often fearfully alleged.

And if a few dogged residents, connectedly adept at bending the ears of local politicians both over the garden fence and elsewhere, are allowed a disproportionate, heatedly hostile, influence here it will be a disgrace.

Which is not reason enough - as Mr. Ware-Lane claims - to drop this planning application ... very far from it.

Very far from it because the contrarily huge number of supporters of this enlightened proposal - enlightened because this hospice deserves to be built in a half-decent situation like this all other considerations being equal which Fair Havens assure us is so - should, more properly, encourage councillors to 'do the math' which add up to some very special circumstances indeed to so many.

Fed up with dog mess

I AM getting extremely fed up with the amount of dog mess that seems to be littering our streets. It seems that no matter where I go - and I seem to get around quite a bit - the pavements greet me with excrement.

I was in Southend recently and walked from the seafront to Southchurch Park, and there was a load of the mess pretty much every three steps.

And during a trip to Barking recently it was the same.

I appreciate it is not a nice thing to pick up, even if it is your own pet. But if you can't handle it, don't have a dog.

I would like to present a potential solution. Most dog owners, even those who do not care about their fellow humans, care enough about their dogs to get them microchipped.

At the same time, the animal's DNA should be taken, making it easy for councils to check back to see what mess belongs to what dog.

Then they could land owners with a fine that would help cover the cost of all the testing and clean up needed. Maybe then the problem will go.

Politicians have cheated us over Europe

IS THIS a democracy? There has been enough debate on the merits or not of being in Europe in this paper's columns; I won't add to it.

However, every poll has suggested that a majority of voters would prefer not to be in and following Cameron's gimmicky peoples' petition we were treated to a sham of a debate.

Each major party leader used threats to persuade MPs to vote against a referendum. Cameron's pre election promise of a referendum was a cynical and devious ploy to gain votes.

Tory, Labour and Lib Dem whips used all manner of threats and bullying to get their sheep to fall in line.

What a disgrace that only 100 or so across the parties had the honour and courage to follow their beliefs and their constituents' wishes.

Others, who professed to be Eurosceptics but voted against, showed outrageous self interest, cowardice and disdain for their voters' views.

Serve the people? I think not. Once again we have been cheated. Worse, our politicians and those in Europe are proving quite inept in dealing with the member states' problems.

But then the entry criteria were fiddled by the countries now dragging the rest down.

Furthermore Europe is not democratic because the real power lies with unelected commissioners who are hell bent on a federalism even greater than that in the USA. Indeed it borders on totalitarianism like in China.

It is all very well to bleat that it was the wrong time for a referendum: a self serving lie.

Do people realise that the savings from painful UK cut-backs plus a lot more have been blown on European bail outs and lavish overseas aid e.g. to India and China which can afford nuclear weapon programmes. Charity begins at home.

What a disgrace.

John Foster,
Rayleigh

Government is not listening

THE COALITION government is clearly not listening to the British public.

We have been shocked at the decision to shut King George's Accident and Emergency and Maternity departments and redirect them to Queen's Hospital.

My own experience at Accident and Emergency in Queen's in March was horrendous.

I was sent home after a serious operation, collapsed and re-admitted, as a 'failed discharge' - (one of many).

I had to wait eight hours in Accident and Emergency before seeing a doctor during which time an agency nurse wrongly name tagged the woman in the next cubicle (who had cancer), then inadvertently switched off her monitor.

My husband was frightened to leave me alone. Experiences of other patients were frightening.

A letter of complaint to Queen's in April was eventually answered five months later and only after writing again. This hospital is already buckling under the strain - they simply cannot cope with more patients.

Local MPs and residents have fought against closure but, once again, they have been ignored, as have doctors and nurses opposing NHS reforms.

And, whether we agree with an EU referendum or not, party whips should not be allowed to beat MPs into submission.

The same bullying tactics were used when MPs dismissed a ban on Wild Animals in Circuses.

MPs were directly threatened by No.10 to abandon this debate. They bravely defied these threats and the majority of cross-party MPs voted for a ban, but, yet again, their views and those of the general public stood for nothing.

We have a badger cull looming that nobody wants and, shockingly, a recent Freedom of Information request has revealed that £400,000 of tax payers money has already been spent by Defra on developing these inhumane and unscientific plans.

Mr Cameron and his ministers have also been discussing how to repeal the Hunting Act - also funded by the taxpayer and opposed by the majority.

It is a shameful fact that this arrogant and oppressive regime is not listening to our elected MPs or to us.

Like the animals this government persists in persecuting, we human animals also have no voice.

Patricia Hall, Romford

Democracy is denied in this country

JUST what kind of Prime Minister drags the country into a very expensive war at a time like this to bring about democracy for Libya and then to deny the same democracy to his own people.

A huge petition has called for a referendum on continued membership of the European Union and to take this course of action can only indicate that he believes the majority would vote it out.

This arrogant line was supported by most of the opposition and the whole of the Liberal Party.

Your reader was certainly right when he wrote he never votes for the three main parties, none of them are worthy of our votes and there are others to chose from.

Hornchurch

HEALTH & BEAUTY

LOOK AND FEEL GOOD FOR CHRISTMAS

A facial to suit all skin types

LIKE many women, as soon as the cold winter days arrive my skin takes a turn for the worse and thoughts of a lovely pampering facial begin to beckon!

Deciding on which facial can be tricky but calling Health and Harmony makes it easy.

They have been established for 17 years and have a very helpful and knowledgeable therapist who advises that the Guinot Hydra Dermie would be just what my skin needs.

Although apprehensive about having an electrical facial, the warm welcome I received at the salon soon puts me at ease and as I settled on to my heated bed listening to gentle music I was totally relaxed.

My friendly and caring therapist explained she would use small rollers connected to a machine sending an electrical current through the skin. It penetrates the deepest tissue layers to cleanse, hydrate and repair and is fully adaptable to any skin type and age group.

Massage

The gentle gliding action of the rollers was followed by a blissful face and neck massage and by the time my face mask was applied I was fast asleep!

After one hour and 15 minutes of heaven my skin felt amazing, so soft and fresh, the difference was clearly visible.

The treatment cost £46.50 and was worth every penny – I will certainly be back for more!

See November in with a bang

LIZ WADE looks at the best fireworks nights taking place across Essex and East London

ONE of the highlights of the year – well, for my children anyway – is Fireworks Night.

With so many displays on offer, we try to see at least a couple each year, so in my search, I thought I would list just some of the firework displays and events on offer throughout the area.

■ Guy Fawkes Experience at the Royal Gunpowder Mills, Beaulieu Drive, Waltham Abbey, Essex, EN9 1JY

If you want more than just fireworks, head to the Gunpowder Mills on November 5 or 6 for a special Secret Island event to celebrate gunpowder's most infamous day in history.

From 2pm each day, there will be an afternoon of fascinating activities telling the story of Guy Fawkes and his Gunpowder Plot.

Each day will end with a traditional fireworks party, live music, fairground rides and a barbecue.

Last admission is at 5.45pm and the firework display will take place from 6-6.15pm. For further information, call 01992 707370 or visit www.royalgunpowdermills.com

■ Lantern Walk in Epping Forest, Epping Forest Visitor Centre, Nursery Road, High Beach, Loughton, Essex, IG10 4AE On Friday, November 11, visitors can make their own candle-lit lantern before taking part in a fun guided walk around the Easy Access Path. The free event takes place from 4.30pm to 6pm. For more, call 020 8508 0028 or visit www.cityoflondon.gov.uk/epping-forest

■ Ongar Fireworks Spectacular, Chipping Ongar Primary School, Greenstead Road, Ongar, Essex CM5 9LA

From 6.30pm on Friday,

November 4, the primary school will be hosting a fun event for all the family, with plenty of stalls, rides, hot food and drink, before a professional firework display.

Glowsticks and goods will be sold by Ongar Round Table to raise funds for local causes, so make sure you buy them inside.

Tickets, which cost £5 for adults, £3 for children and £10 for families, are available from John Sear estate agents on Ongar High Street, Chipping Ongar Primary School or www.ort.org.uk

■ Billerica Round Table Charity Fireworks Night, Lake Meadows Park, Billericay, Essex, CM12 0AQ The organisation's 42nd Charity Firework Display will be taking place on Saturday, November 5.

The largest charity fireworks display in Essex is expected to attract around 17,000 people.

There will be live entertainment hosted by Martin and Su from Heart FM plus additional fun for the family. For further information visit www.billericafireworks.co.uk

■ Chelmsford Fireworks Display, Admirals Park, Rainsford Road, Chelmsford, Essex, CM1 2PJ This year's event, on Saturday, November 5, will be raising money for various local good causes.

Gates open for a children's funfair at 6.30pm, and Heart FM's live roadshow will be providing the entertainment throughout the event, with the firework display taking place at 7.30pm.

Entrance is £6 for adults, £4 for children aged five to 16, and £15 for families. For more, visit www.chelmsfordroundtable.org.uk

■ Witham Round Table Charity Fireworks Display, Town Park, Maldon Road, Witham, CM8 1HN A £4,500 aerial display will take place on Saturday, November 5, at 7.30pm, with plenty of fun from 6pm. There will be side attractions, as well as a bonfire at 7pm.

Admission on the gate will be £5 for adults, £3 for children and concessions, and £10 for families.

Tickets are available in advance for £3 for adults and £2 for children, from Witham Visitor Information Centre. For further information, call 01376 502674 or visit www.withamroundtable.co.uk

■ Walthamstow Fireworks Display, Chestnut Field (behind Walthamstow Town Hall), Forest Road, Walthamstow, E17 4JF The event, on Saturday, November 5, starts at 5pm and will include music, a funfair, food stalls and bouncy castles, as well as a pyrotechnics display at 8pm.

Admission is £4 for adults, £3 for kids under 16, while OAPs and children under five get in for free.

For further information, call the council's Arts and Events Team on 080 8496 3000 or visit www.walthamforest.gov.uk

■ Lord Mayor's Show Head into London on Saturday, November 12, to see a fantastic parade and an amazing fireworks display as part of this historic event, which has taken place in London since 1215.

A procession, including marching bands, floats and an aircraft fly past, starts at Mansion House, following a two minute silence to commemorate Armistice Day at 11am. The three-mile procession will then make its way to the Royal Courts of Justice.

A fireworks display to mark the beginning of a new mayoral year will take place at 5pm, and will be launched from a barge on the River Thames, between Waterloo Bridge and Blackfriars Bridge.

For further information, visit

FUN: Celebrate November 5 with a blaze of colour

www.lordmayorsshow.org

■ Barking Park Fireworks Display, Longbridge Road, Barking The Barking Park fireworks display, organised by the Barking and Dagenham Round Table for the local council, will take place on Saturday, November 5.

Gates open at 5.30pm and the programme includes live entertainment from The Robbie Williams Tribute Show and a fair. The fireworks are due to start at 8pm.

The event, which will raise money for a number of local charities, costs £5 for adults and £1 for children under 16. For more details, visit www.roundtable.co.uk/news

■ Fireworks Spectacular, Southend Seafront The skies over the seafront will be lit up at 8pm on Saturday, November 5, with a free firework spectacular launched from a barge just off Jubilee Beach, about 100m east of the pier.

The popular event is expected to attract thousands of people.

Exquisite food at Regency Spice

ONE of the largest restaurants in Essex has become a firm favourite with diners since opening its doors last year. Regency Spice Restaurant, Lounge and Diner, in Back Lane, Rochford, has been serving exquisite food that looks sensational and tastes divine since opening its doors in May.

Its menu includes a vast range of dishes from chef's recommendations to Regency specialities. There are a range of tandoori specialities, balti dishes, Nepalese and Bangladeshi specialities, Thali and Kurzi specials, Persian, chicken, meat, fresh fish and shellfish dishes, as well as Thai specialities, vegetarian options and Regency Combination Platters for two or four people.

These are complemented by a wide range of starters, rice dishes, nan breads, sundries and pickles, and desserts. The fully licensed and air-conditioned restaurant also offers an extensive drinks list including a wide range of beers and wine.

Regency Spice offers a five-course Midweek Special (served Monday to Thursday), which is also available for £12.95 and includes any starter and main, rice, nan bread and tea or coffee.

The restaurant also has a Sunday Buffet, served from noon to 11.30pm, when customers can eat as much as they like from a large selection of delicious dishes for £7.95 per person, or £3.95 for under 10s.

Tony, the owner of Regency Spice, has been in the catering business for 40 years. He prides himself on the restaurant, which is a wonderful place to celebrate a range of special occasions, from engagements and weddings, to birthdays and anniversaries.

It has ample space for large parties thanks to its separate function room, which is complete with dancefloor, sounds, lights and smoke, as well as karaoke.

The restaurant, which has full disabled access, can also host charity nights for which it will donate 50 per cent to the charity of your choice.

Regency Spice also hosts cabaret nights throughout the year and up-and-coming evenings include Neil Diamond on November 17, Smooth Criminal on December 8, and the Abba Unique Girls on December 15.

The restaurant is also taking booking for Christmas for which anyone interested is urged to call for further information, and book early to avoid disappointment.

Go Greek at the Akropolis

AKROPOLIS is one of the area's most popular Greek restaurants. The Westcliff eatery has attracted a growing band of fans since opening its doors nine years ago.

It's not hard to see why - with 25 main dishes, 28 starters, two set meals, and a variety of desserts on the menu, there is always something new to try.

For those with a huge appetite to satisfy, Akropolis serves up a Greek Meze menu every day for £19.95 per person.

The menu, which introduces diners to the Cypriot way of eating, starts with tasty dips and pitta bread, and is followed by cold starters and fish dishes, Cypriot wine sausages, smoked loin of pork and grilled goat's milk cheese. Then its onto the meats, and even Kleftico and Stifado for those looking for more. To finish you are given a taste of Greek Pastries and an array of fresh fruits.

The Akropolis Meze, available for two or more people, is ideal for parties as the menu is meant to be lingered over.

There is also a Kleftico Feast, including traditional dips and pitta bread, Kleftico, Greek Pastries and a platter of fresh fruits, for £17.95 per person.

The mouth-watering food is not the only Akropolis attraction - the restaurant also produces a good line in live music on most days throughout the week.

The restaurant can comfortably seat up to 60 people and has a well-stocked, fully licensed bar.

Staff can cater for any occasion whether it's a quiet meal for two or a birthday celebration. They are also now taking bookings for Christmas and anyone interested is urged to call for further information. The restaurant will be serving its normal menu over the festive season, which is ideal for those wanting to enjoy a pre-

Christmas get together with friends, family or work colleagues.

With its experienced chefs and friendly, helpful staff, the Akropolis offers a top quality, value-for-money evening out.

Akropolis, which can also satisfy any special dietary needs and offer children-friendly dishes, is open seven days a week, from 5pm to midnight from Monday to Thursday, from 5pm to 1am on Friday and Saturday, and from noon to midnight on Sunday.

The Akropolis is located at 120 Station Road, Westcliff, and ample parking is available just 50 yards away, by the Cliffs Pavilion.

A NEW family run restaurant and takeaway offers customers a complete dining experience, thanks to its welcoming environment, outstanding service and delicious cuisine.

Curry Garden, in Pitsea, which was joined by the mayor of Basildon on October 9 for its grand opening, is intent on providing the best Indian takeaway and service around.

Its experienced chef, who is also a member of the family, has gained a reputation as being one of the best in the area and prides himself on mixing and preparing the restaurant's very own herbs and spices, and cooking all its dishes with cholesterol free oil.

His dishes offer diners a unique experience of flavours from the Indian continent through a range of starters, as well as Tandoori, Biriani, Balti and Korai dishes.

It also offers an extensive range of traditional dishes, including its Curry Garden Special complete with chicken and lamb tikka, as well as prawn and sheek kebab.

There is even a children's menu offering everything from chicken or lamb wrapped in nan bread with mixed salad, to favourite dishes such as chicken steak, cod, and meat or chicken sausages.

As well as its a la carte menu, the restaurant also hosts Banqueting Nights every Wednesday when you can enjoy a five course meal for just £9.95. There are also set meals for one to four persons to enjoy, from £12.95 to £39.95, as well as a takeaway service.

Get the VIP treatment and help raise charity cash at the Tandoori Parlour ATHUNDERSLEY restaurant goes out of its way to look after its customers, by offering free VIP cards and helping diners raise thousands of pounds for charity.

Tandoori Parlour, at 61-63 Hart Road, has helped raise thousands of pounds over the years for a range of charities including Barnardo's, the British Red Cross and Essex Air Ambulance.

Its Charity Nights give up to 50 per cent of profits to fundraisers for the charity of their choice. They are also outstanding value-for-money as prices per person are just £6 from Sunday to Wednesday, £7 on Thursdays and £10 on Fridays. What's more, if you organise your charity event for 60 or more people a DJ or karaoke is also free of charge.

The big-hearted restaurant also looks after its diners by offering them a free VIP card. The card, which can be used every day except Saturday evenings and throughout the year except Christmas, saves you pounds on it's a la carte and buffet menus.

The card offers 'two for one' deals on starters and main courses from its a la carte menu from Sunday to Friday, and £3 off per person at its buffet evenings from Monday to Friday.

Anyone interested in a VIP card, which has to be presented to receive offers, can pick one up from the restaurant or ask for one to be posted.

Tandoori Parlour, which is the largest Indian restaurant in Essex and one of the first Indian restaurants to win the Tiffin Cup in 2005, is regularly featured in the Good Curry Guide.

The restaurant, which has the capacity for 450 people, has a downstairs dining area with bar and dance floor as well as its Crystal Room upstairs, complete with illuminated glass dance floor, laser light show, baby grand piano, and state-of-the-art sound and lighting.

Diners can enjoy a wide range of Indian and Nepalese cuisine at its extensive evening buffets, which offer the ideal chance to try different tastes.

Your buffet begins with a platter of starters silver served at your table before more than 50 dishes from different provinces of India and Nepal.

The buffet costs just £11.95 per person from Sunday to Wednesday, and £12.95 on Thursday.

Its popular Banquet and Disco nights are held on Friday and Saturday offering silver served starters, extensive buffet as well as a disco with DJ entertainment. Both evenings cost £16.95 per person, or just £14 on Friday night for VIP card holders.

Its Sunday Family Buffet lunch is also great value-for-money at just £7.95 per person, with children under the age of 10 eating for free.

A full a la carte menu is also available at the restaurant alongside its buffets.

Tandoori Parlour, which is fully air conditioned and licensed, with full disabled facilities, and a free large car park opposite, also has a takeaway service.

The modern restaurant is now taking Christmas bookings for disco and karaoke nights from late November, from just £11.95 per person.

Tandoori Parlour is open from noon to 2.30pm and 5.30pm to midnight from Monday to Saturday (last admission 10.30pm), and from noon to midnight (last admission 10.30pm) on Sunday.

CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE FOR ALL ADVERTISEMENTS

Orders are accepted by the Publishers subject to the Standard Conditions agreed between the Newspaper Society and the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising. Save that:
1. Advertisements are accepted on the conditions that (a) descriptions relating to goods are accurate and in no way contravene the provisions of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, and the Fair Trading Act 1973, and (b) the copy complies with the British Code of Advertising Practice. Advertisements offering credit or hire facilities must conform to the Consumer Credit (Advertisements) Regulations 1980.
2. 'Classified' Advertisements offering goods or service of a business, commercial or trade nature will, at the discretion of the Publishers, be deemed 'Trade Advertisers', and as such, must include their names in advertisements. A telephone number is an optional addition to these requirements and not an alternative.
3. The Publishers accept no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage however caused arising out of:
(a) Any error, inaccuracy or omission in the printing or publishing of any advertisement;
(b) Any failure to publish an advertisement on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser; or
(c) Any delay in forwarding or omission to forward replies to box numbers to the advertiser.
4. The Publishers will endeavour to publish advertisements on the day / date or day / dates specified by the Advertiser but insertion days / dates cannot be guaranteed.
5. Where shrinkage of advertisement occurs for whatever reasons the advertisement will be charged to the nearest full centimetre. This will NOT apply to the full-page advertisements, which remain full pages even after shrinkage.
6. The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or to vary it in any way they deem fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.
7. Whilst every effort is made to minimise errors in advertisements, mistakes do sometimes occur. Advertisers or their agents should therefore check their advertisements and inform us of any errors immediately. Reasonably acceptable for more than one incorrect insertion. Typographical or minor changes, which do not affect the value of the advertisement, do not qualify for republication or allowances.
8. All paid advertising rates (except classified finance and semi-display) are subject to and include a 0.1% Advertising Standards Board of Finance surcharge, payable by the advertisers to help finance the self-regulatory control system administered by the Advertising Standards Authority.
9. All rates quoted are subject to VAT at the rate currently in force at the time the advertisement appears.
10. Should the rate for advertisements be altered the price for remaining insertions shall be revised accordingly or the publishers shall have the right to cancel the unexpired portion of the order.
11. The placing of an advertisement order will be deemed an acceptance of these conditions.
12. Account facilities are granted at the discretion of the Company.
13. All accounts must be settled within the terms agreed by the Company and the Customer.
(1) Should an advertiser be in breach of the agreed terms, the publisher shall be entitled to levy a 10% surcharge on the value of the whole debt in respect of accounts with terms of less than 30 days, and any discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed.
(2) Regular monthly accounts that are in breach of the agreed terms will pay an interest rate of 6% above the current bank of England base rate for each month that the account is overdue and discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed. Should legal action be required the interest will be charged in accordance with the County Court Act 1984.
14. Where an advertiser instructs / appoints an advertising agent to act on their behalf, the advertiser will remain jointly and severally liable for payment in respect of an advertisement(s) should the appointed agent fail to pay. For the avoidance of doubt, the agent acts for the advertiser and not for the publisher with the agent being responsible for notifying the advertiser of this liability.
15. All queries must be notified, preferably in writing to the accounts department of the publisher within 7 days of the invoice date.
16. All digital services are maintained in partnership with the publishers' hosting service providers. Every effort is made to ensure the continuity of these services, but some occasional technical downtime beyond the publishers control may occur. The publisher and its associated companies shall be under no liability if the production and distribution of web services is delayed or prevented by any cause beyond the control of the publisher.
17. The Publisher may provide voucher copies for published advertisements in electronic form only subject to certain criteria. Further information is available on request.
18. The copyright of advertisements produced wholly or partially by the Publishers belong to the Publishers. Advertisers may not reproduce such advertisements without the Publishers' consent.
Box Numbers
Boxes are open for the receipt of bona fide answers and are not available for distribution of trade canvassing matter. Original testimonials, goods, cash, cash stamps or payments of any kind must not be enclosed. A box number and postal address are charged as part of the advertisement, i.e. Box No., centre address. There is no charge for forwarding replies. Box numbers alone are not available for use in 'Trade' advertisements, other than Employment and Business Opportunities.
Holiday & Travel Category
All advertising must contain the name of the advertiser, phone number alone is not permitted.
Data Protection
The service you have requested may require us to carry out a credit search at a credit-referencing agency, which will record the fact that a search has been made. We may need to share your information with other lenders and credit reference agencies. However, we will only use the information from these searches to make credit-grating decisions and, if necessary, for fraud prevention or tracing debtors.
Data controller will use your information for administration and analysis. We may share your information with other Tindle Group Newspaper companies or carefully selected third parties. We, or they, may send you details of other goods and services, which may be of interest to you. The information may be provided by letter, telephone or other reasonable means of communication. Calls may be recorded or monitored for training purposes.
Special conditions apply with regard to the advertising of adult services, which are outlined to all persons submitting such advertisements.

Mercedes steps up in M-Class

by Andy Enright

TO TELL the truth, Mercedes did not need to do too much to the old M-Class to keep it at the top of the tree, but this latest model is far more energy efficient, loaded with more technology and boasts better off-road credentials too. More angular styling details but a familiar shape will ensure that existing owners will not see their vehicle's residual values collapse.

The Mercedes-Benz factory at Sindelfingen is like a slightly surreal city in its own right where everything is Mercedes branded apart from the odd competitor vehicle that's being tested/dismantled by Mercedes engineers with knotted brows. It's vast. The design studio was just the place for this. Here we had dashboards of the first M-Class (W163 model), launched in 1997. Functional would be a kind way of describing the design ethos. Fast forward to 2005 and the W164 generation M-Class debuted, offering much better materials quality and a design theme that emphasised the width of the car. Six years is a long time in vehicle development and while today's W166 generation facia did not look that different, the integration of technology means that, if anything, it's a bigger step forward in terms of user experience than ever.

Somewhere in its narrative, the Mercedes M-Class allowed Porsche and BMW to comprehensively hijack the story thread that covered driving dynamics. Even Land Rover got in on the act, its Range Rover Sport donning spoilers and big alloys to mask the fact that it was a Discovery in a pretty frock. The M was cast in the role of plush but dull which, if you've ever had the opportunity to get behind the wheel of the distinctly certifiable ML63 AMG.

This time round the focus is on responsibility. Mercedes has also stressed its commitment to the M-Class' off-road ability and to that end it gains an ON&OFFROAD system which allows the driver to choose between Automatic, Winter, Trailer, Sport, Offroad 1 (light off-road) and Offroad2 (more arduous terrain).

UK buyers get to choose between two diesel models and one fitted with a petrol engine. Green pump first and we get the 306bhp ML 350 4MATIC BlueEFFICIENCY. Go diesel instead and you'll choose between the economy-oriented ML 250 BlueTEC 4MATIC which delivers an output of 204bhp along with 500Nm of torque. It can accelerate from a standing start to 62 mph in 9.0 seconds, while its top speed is 130 mph.

The M-Class draws inspiration in its basic proportioning from its predecessor while the detailing of the surfaces and exterior fitments is redolent of the GL and GLK-class models. Gone are the gentle curves, replaced with a more strident and powerful look. It's still an M-Class, just one that appears a little more gym-toned.

Inside there's more shoulder room, with the cabin being 35mm wider in front and 24mm broader in the rear and the dashboard now features a far more prominent screen for the COMAND multimedia system with the air vents repositioned. Unlike many of its premium rivals, the M-Class does without a pair of vestigial seats in the back, preferring five full-sized seats though it has to be said that the centre berth in the rear is definitely the short straw being rather firm and not brilliantly contoured. If you need seven seats, look to the behemoth GL model instead. Four different wood veneer finishes are available for the dashboard or there's aluminium if you're not a lumber lover.

This being a Mercedes, you get plenty of safety kit. Twin front, side and full length curtain airbags are fitted, as well as a knee airbag for the driver. Rear seat side airbags can also be specified. The standard equipment package includes the drowsiness detection system Attention Assist, the anticipatory safety system Pre-Safe and a tyre pressure loss warning system, as well as adaptive brake lights and Brake Assist (BAS).

The ML 250 is set to be the big seller and it's easy to see why. It makes the same 204bhp power output as its ML 300 CDI predecessor but emissions drop from that car's 224g/km to a mere 158g/km and economy improves from 33.6 to 47mpg. Suddenly the image of the gas-guzzling urban 4x4 starts to look a little passe.

Perhaps the M-Class was too important to be allowed to grow old. Mercedes-Benz has stepped in and replaced a vehicle that still felt fresh and popular with one that shows quite how far technology has progressed in the last handful of years. Hugely more efficient than its predecessor, arguably even better looking and now featuring some impressive safety systems, smarter driving assists and a well-integrated infotainment system, the M-Class looks a strong contender.

It takes big budgets to develop just such a car and although this platform is shared with other models, the M-Class feels typically 'New Mercedes', that is to say, back to the sort of build integrity that for some years had gone missing. With the ML 250 diesel model promising the sort of economy and emissions we'd normally expect from a family hatchback, success is guaranteed.

Scrap Cars

End of the road for your vehicle?

Responsible drivers scrap their vehicles at an Authorised Treatment Facility (ATF).

Because only an ATF can legally scrap a vehicle.
That means any pollutants will be made safe before it's recycled in an environmentally friendly way.

What's more, for certain types of vehicle you'll get a DVLA approved Certificate of Destruction (CoD).
A CoD proves that the ATF has told DVLA your vehicle has been scrapped and so is no longer your responsibility. www.direct.gov.uk/motoring

motoring news

Go that extra mile

AS CERTAIN as the sun will rise tomorrow, petrol prices will never see the £3 gallon again. So the economy-minded motorist has two avenues to explore: seek out the most fuel-efficient cars and learn to drive more efficiently to save money and the environment.
But how? Martin Holzhofer, the man in charge of General Motors' European ECO model programme, offers these top practical hints to wallet-friendly motoring.

Reap the benefit:
He says modern automobile technology has made great strides in reducing fuel consumption and CO2 emissions, but handling the car correctly is also one of the biggest and often insufficiently explored factors in saving fuel.
Martin, based at Vauxhall/Opel International Technical Development Centre in Germany, is convinced of this: "Everyone who puts even a few of these important hints into practice will reap the benefit in hard cash next time the car is filled up. By making sure that their cars are well looked after and by adopting a suitable driving style, it's easy to squeeze the greatest mileage out of every drop of petrol."

As far as the car itself is concerned, regular routine maintenance is essential. It is also important to check the tyre pressure because low-pressure causes increased rolling resistance and costs more money in two areas - in fuel and tyre wear.

Those who are determined to get the maximum fuel economy may choose to inflate the tyres up to one or two tenths of a decimal point above the specified pressure in bar.
Another useful tip is not to carry unnecessary ballast around in the boot. A 100-kilogram load can result in increased fuel consumption by more than five mpg in town driving.

Look ahead:
Unnecessary accelerating and braking not only costs fuel but frayed nerves as well.
Accelerate briskly but not aggressively: it's better to press the accelerator pedal down further in a higher gear than to run the engine up to high revs. Shift up to top gear as soon as you can. Drive in fifth gear from around 30 mph and keep to low revs (between 2000 and 3000 rpm) whenever possible.

Tips in brief:

- Don't warm the engine up with the car at a standstill. Drive off right away instead.
- Drive at steady speeds, looking well ahead and use fifth gear (or the car's top gear) for all regular driving.
- Don't step on the fuel pedal while coasting and remain in gear. Switch off the engine if you have to wait for more than a minute.
- Accelerate briskly and shift up early.
- Use only 75 per cent of the vehicle's top speed.
- Avoid full acceleration and kickdown with automatic and automated manual transmissions. Apply pressure to the accelerator pedal in a restrained manner.
- Check tyre pressures regularly.
- Remove the roof rack when not in use.

CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE FOR ALL ADVERTISEMENTS

Orders are accepted by the Publishers subject to the Standard Conditions agreed between the Newspaper Society and the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising. Save that:

- Advertisements are accepted on the conditions that (a) descriptions relating to goods are accurate and in no way contravene the provisions of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, and the Fair Trading Act 1973, and (b) the copy complies with the British Code of Advertising Practice. Advertisements offering credit or hire facilities must conform to the Consumer Credit (Advertisements) Regulations 1980.
- 'Classified' Advertisers offering goods or service of a business, commercial or trade nature will, at the discretion of the Publishers, be deemed 'Trade Advertisers', and as such, must include their names in advertisements. A telephone number is an optional addition to these requirements and not an alternative.
- To comply with the Business Advertisements (Disclosure) Order 1977, Trade Advertisers must make it clear that they are selling goods in the course of business either by content, format, size or place of the advertisement or by including words such as 'trade', 'dealer', 'agent', 'wholesaler', '(T)' etc. in the advertisement.
- The Publishers accept no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage however caused arising out of:
 - (a) Any error, inaccuracy or omission in the printing or publishing of any advertisement;
 - (b) Any failure to publish an advertisement on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser; or
 - (c) Any delay in forwarding or omission to forward replies to box numbers to the Advertiser.
- The Publishers will endeavour to publish advertisements on the day / date or day / dates specified by the Advertiser but insertion days / dates cannot be guaranteed.
- Where shrinkage of advertisement occurs for whatever reasons the advertisement will be charged to the nearest full centimetre. This will NOT apply to the full-page advertisements, which remain full pages even after shrinkage.
- The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or to vary it in any way they deem fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.
- Whilst every effort is made to minimise errors in advertisements, mistakes do sometimes occur. Advertisers or their agents should therefore check their advertisements and inform us of any errors immediately. Responsibility cannot be accepted for more than one incorrect insertion. Typographical or minor changes, which do not affect the value of the advertisement, do not qualify for republication or allowances.
- All gross advertising rates (except classified lineage and semi-display) are subject to and include a 0.1% Advertising Standards Board of Finance surcharge, payable by the advertisers to help finance the self-regulatory control system administered by the Advertising Standards Authority.
- All rates quoted are subject to VAT at the rate currently in force at the time the advertisement appears.
- Should the rate for advertisements be altered the price for remaining insertions shall be revised accordingly or the publishers shall have the right to cancel the unexpired portion of the order.
- The placing of an advertisement order will be deemed an acceptance of these conditions.
- Account facilities are granted at the discretion of the Company.
- All accounts must be settled within the terms agreed by the Company and the Customer.
 - (1) Should an advertiser be in breach of the agreed terms, the publisher shall be entitled to levy a 10% surcharge on the value of the whole debt in respect of accounts with terms of less than 30 days, and any discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed.
 - (2) Regular monthly accounts that are in breach of the agreed terms will pay an interest rate of 6% above the current bank of England base rate for each month that the account is overdue and discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed. Should Legal action be required the interest will be charged in accordance with the County Court Act 1984.
- Where an advertiser instructs / appoints an advertising agent to act on their behalf, the advertiser will remain jointly and severally liable for payment in respect for an advertisement(s) should the appointed agent fail to pay. For the avoidance of doubt, the agent acts for the advertiser and not for the publisher with the agent being responsible for notifying the advertiser of this liability.
- All queries must be notified, preferably in writing to the accounts department of the publisher within 7 days of the invoice date.
- All digital services are maintained in partnership with the publishers' hosting service providers. Every effort is made to ensure the continuity of these services, but some occasional technical downtime beyond the publishers control may occur. The publisher and its associated companies shall be in no liability if the production and distribution of web services is delayed or prevented by any cause beyond the control of the publisher.
- The Publisher may provide voucher copies for published advertisements in electronic form only subject to certain criteria. Further information is available on request.
- The copyright of advertisements produced wholly or partially by the Publishers belong to the Publishers. Advertisers may not reproduce such advertisements without the Publishers' consent.

Box Numbers

Boxes are open for the receipt of bona fide answers and are not available for distribution of trade canvassing matter. Original testimonials, goods, cash, cash stamps or payments of any kind must not be enclosed. A box Number and postal address are charged as part of the advertisement, i.e. Box No., centre address. There is no charge for forwarding replies.

Box numbers alone are not available for use in 'Trade' advertisements, other than Employment and Business Opportunities.

Holiday & Travel Category

All advertising must contain the name of the advertiser, phone number alone are not permitted.

Data Protection

The service you have requested may require us to carry out a credit search at a credit-referencing agency, which will record the fact that a search has been made. We may need to share your information with other lenders and credit reference agencies. However, we will only use the information from these searches to make credit-granting decisions and, if necessary, for fraud prevention or tracing debtors. Data controller will use your information for administration and analysis. We may share your information with other Tindle Group Newspaper companies or carefully selected third parties. We, or they, may send you details of other goods and services, which may be of interest to you. The information may be provided by letter, telephone or other reasonable means of communication. Calls may be recorded or monitored for training purposes.

Special conditions apply with regard to the advertising of adult services, which are outlined to all persons submitting such advertisements.

Double success for rugby youngsters

Rugby Union

IT WAS a double celebration for Brentwood Youth Rugby Club who saw two teams win tournaments.

The Under-10s won their second Bowl Trophy of the season at the weekend at the Thurrock Festival, following their success a fortnight earlier at the Southend 'A' Festival.

Meanwhile, the Under Nine's went on to win the Vase Final at Southend, which was their first festival of the season.

The Under 10s started their success at Southend, despite losing their opening game 10-5 against the hosts.

However, victories against Battersea Ironsides and Westcliff, and a draw with Old Elthamians, saw them through to the Bowl Final against Braintree.

Another confident performance saw them win 20-0 and another trophy.

It was not straight forward at the Thurrock where two draws against Thurrock and Westcliff, and a defeat against Upminster set up a crunch game with Chelmsford.

A win would see them through and a great showing helped them to a 15-0 victory and a final against Eton Manor.

Again, Brentwood ended the tournament strongly, taking another trophy with a 15-0 win.

The Under Nine's played a challenging pool containing Southend, Upminster and Sevenoaks at the Southend Festival, and worked their way to the final where they would play Colchester.

Brentwood went on to dominate the match to win Vase Trophy after scoring two tries.

Rugby Union

Barking and Southend produce great wins

BARKING pulled off one of the shocks of the season so far, beating National One leaders Ealing Trailfinders 22-20.

The east Londoners ended the only unbeaten record in the division with a superb showing at the Goresbrook, to make up for last week's defeat at Blackheath.

Liam Dwyer, Andrew Henderson and Sam Reynolds scored their tries, with Chris Ashwin kicking two conversions and a penalty.

They held on despite Jo Hardy being sin-binned with four minutes to go.

Southend got their season back on track with a 22-33 victory at Old Albanians.

Tries from Danny Cleare, Michael Guess, Andrew McClintock, Joe Van Der Molen and Billy Driver, plus two conversions from Andrew Frost and an early Simon Hoult penalty, lifted them up to seventh place in National Two South.

Westcliff suffered a heavy 58-12 defeat at Bishop's Stortford in National League Three London & South East.

The defeat leaves them in 11th place, with Mike McKeith scoring all their points with four penalties.

In London One North, Thurrock are one of three sides tied on points at the top, thanks to their convincing 53-8 victory over Hammer-smith & Fulham. They sit second behind Letchworth Garden City, who saw off lowly Rochford Hundred 43-10.

Brentwood moved up the table courtesy of their 41-22 win over second from bottom Braintree while Chingford slipped down following their 11-33 loss to third place Colchester.

Eton Manor are fast becoming the draw specialists in the division, after nothing separated them against Diss, drawing 25-25.

Romford & Gidea Park extended their lead in London Two North East to nine points following their 34-22 victory over Enfield Ignatians. They were also aided by second place Chelmsford's loss 20-29 to third place Basil-don.

Canvey Island got back to winning ways, beating Old Streetonians 43-12, while Woodford lost 8-23 to Hampstead to remain just above the drop zone.

In London Three North East, Campion lost out narrowly to leaders Holt 7-10 to drop second from bottom.

East London jumped above them following their 24-15 victory over bottom side Newmarket. Wanstead won 29-27 against Stowmarket to go fifth, Upminster are just behind thanks to their 20-27 win at Sudbury, while South Woodham Ferrers lost 17-21 to Norwich.

West Ham United

Baldock doubles up

A DOUBLE from Sam Baldock earned West Ham United a 3-2 victory over managerless Leicester City on Saturday.

The striker gave the Irons the lead before Julien Faubert added a second soon after.

The Foxes - with Jon Rudkin and Mike Stowell running things on the touchline - got one back through Andy King in the second half before Baldock added a third on 71 minutes.

King grabbed his second on 74 minutes to leave Hammers' nerves jangling, but it turned out to be a consolation.

Irons boss Sam Allardyce had nothing but praise for 22-year-old Baldock, who joined the club earlier this season from MK Dons.

He said: "Sam Baldock is going home with the headlines again. I am sure the word will reverberate around football. You have to keep your eye on him when he plays at Upton Park."

The Irons were due to host Bristol City last night (Tuesday) and travel to Hull City on Saturday, kick-off at 3pm.

Blues earn best start in 21 years

Southend United

SOUTHEND United returned to the top of League Two thanks to their 2-0 win at Macclesfield Town on Saturday.

Goals from Ryan Hall and Kane Ferdinand not only helped the Blues leapfrog Crawley Town, but also extended their unbeaten run to ten games, nine of which they have won, earning them their best start in 21 years.

Blues boss Paul Sturrock was pleased with the result, but hopes to keep his players' feet on the ground.

"He said: 'You've got to worry about over-confidence, you've got to worry about restlessness with some of the other players not being involved and you've just got to keep churning out result after result.

"Our keeper made two great saves and perhaps that was the only difference between the teams.

"Macc have had a great start to the season. They have lost once at home on the first day of the season and many of the top teams have gone away with their tails between their legs so I am doubly delighted at this result."

Coming off from their 3-0 win at Barnet midweek, the Shrimpers carried on from where they left off, dominating the first half.

Hall saw his 25-yard shot deflected wide by Silkmen defender Nat Brown, while keeper Jose Veiga was kept busy, pushing wide Bilel Mohsni's overhead kick and keeping out two efforts long range from Michael Timlin.

But the Blues finally got the reward for their efforts on 39 minutes, when Hall volleyed home inside the penalty area, despite Veiga getting a hand on the ball.

The hosts only managed their first shot on target at the end of the half which highlighted Southend's domination, but Carl Tremarco's effort was kept out by Blues keeper Luke Daniels, on-loan from West Brom.

The Silkmen came out of the blocks well for the second half, with Colin Daniel firing over from an acute angle, while Vinny Mukendi dragged his shot wide of the post.

But the Blues weathered the storm, with Timlin chipping over before doubling their lead on 62 minutes.

Hall's corner caused confusion in the Macclesfield box with Peter Gilbert's effort blocked, but Ferdinand was on hand to smash the ball into the net for his third goal in a week.

The chances still came in thick and fast with Daniels kept busy, saving a Brown header and two efforts from Mukendi, while at the other end Liam Dickinson should have made it three when one-on-one with Veiga, but the keeper came out on top.

But it did not matter as Southend headed south with three deserved points.

■ Southend host Oxford United on Saturday, kick-off at 3pm.

Motormen and Rocks provide giant-killings

Non-League Football

IT WAS joy for two clubs in Essex who have made the First Round of the FA Cup after beating Conference opposition on Saturday.

Redbridge, from Ryman League Division One North, left it late to beat Blue Square Premier's Ebbsfleet United 2-0, with goals from Ryan Murray and Joe Gardner, to send them through to the first round for the first time in their current guise. They reached that stage as Ford United in 1998 and 2003 and will face Oxford City in the First Round.

Ryman League Premier's East Thurrock United booked their place for the first time in their history thanks to a 2-1 win at Conference South side Eastbourne Borough.

Sam Higgins put the Rocks ahead on 57 minutes with Kris Newby giving them breathing space with a 73rd minute penalty.

Gary Elphick pulled a goal back in the 81st minute but the Rocks held out and now League Two Macclesfield Town await them.

Chelmsford City's Kenny Clark scored an injury time equaliser to earn his side a 1-1 home draw with Conference North's Gloucester City.

The Clarets fell behind to Will Murford's first-half opener but Clark scored late to set up a replay due to take place last night (Tuesday).

There was still time for City's Cliff Akurang to see red for violent conduct.

Essex Senior League's Southend Manor put in a spirited performance, but went down 3-1 at Blue Square Premier's Kettering Town.

Manor's Max Kent cancelled out Leon McKenzie's opener before half-time, but substitute Jean-Paul Marna scored a double to stop a possible giant-killing.

AFC Hornchurch maintain top spot in Ryman League Premier thanks to a 4-0 victory at Lewes.

After a goalless first half, Martin Tuohy scored a penalty double, while Lewis Smith and Jonathan Hunt added more late on.

Billerica Town are in second after seeing off Canvey Island 4-2.

Jay May scored early in each half for Town but the Gulls replied each time through Rob King (16) and Jason Hallett (74).

David Knight put Blues ahead in 78 minutes and Rob Swaine made sure in the dying minutes.

Aveley are in trouble near the bottom, losing 3-0 at home to Wealdstone. Richard Jolly netted twice, sandwiching David Hicks' effort.

Concord Rangers stayed in the bottom four following their goalless draw at home against Carshalton Athletic.

Ryman League Division One North leaders Grays Athletic suffered a surprise 2-1 home defeat to Thamesmead Town.

Theo Fairweather-Johnson gave the visitors the lead while Harry Agombar missed a penalty for the Blues.

Bradley Thomas equalised with three minutes to go, but Andy Hall was sent off for bringing down Brad Killick and Ashley Proberts scored the resulting penalty.

Tilbury lost 4-1 at Needham Market. Emiel Aiken cancelled out Dan Thrower's opener, but the Dockers fell further behind to goals from Sam Newson, Duane Wright and Danny Bloomfield.

Brentwood Town moved up to fourth thanks to their 2-0 win at Waltham Forest with goals from Dean Green and Ryan Edgar. Tashan Nicholas saw red for Forest.

Great Wakering Rovers lost 2-0 at Leiston, while Heybridge Swifts suffered a 1-0 home defeat to Enfield Town, Leon Osei scoring the only goal.

High-Tech keeping homes safe from the elements

(Feature)

Over 70% of homes in the UK have a flat roof incorporating a mineral felt finish - that's seven out of ten home owners with a potential flat roof problem...

Mineral felt is prone to a slow breakdown often allowing water ingress to cause unnecessary problems before being visibly detected within the home. Mineral felt has a tendency to blister throughout summer months and eventually becoming brittle and cracking during colder periods, cracking will also appear around exposed edges and other points of detail i.e. around pipes, skylights, flashings into brickwork or under tiles etc. These areas are where workmanship is most crucial. Felt also attracts moss & algae further degrading the roof surface.

It is very important that every homeowner is made aware that insurance companies no longer cover or accept any liability for any external or internal damage caused by a leaking felt roof. Unless it can be proven storm damage any such claim is categorised as wear & tear or poor workmanship leaving the homeowner with the financial burden.

In 1999 High-Tech Roofing first introduced the most advanced flat roof technology to the homeowner. Protan who are based in Norway have a pedigree in the design and manufacture of waterproofing materials dating back to 1939 producing the first roofing membrane in 1971. Protan is our preferred PVC single-ply flat roofing system. Protan will cope with all climates as millions of square metres are installed here and abroad with a proven track record stretching over four decades. Protan is predominantly an architect specified roofing system winning many awards and serving the very competitive commercial sector. High-Tech have installed and proudly guarantees over 5000 domestic projects along with an untarnished reputation.

A High-Tech roof is dimensionally stable and solar reflective, it is unaffected by climate change and 100% resistant to moss & algae. As it is vapour permeable it can never blister or become brittle and crack. We will create an anti-slip 100% storm resistant watertight roof, maintenance free and guaranteed never to leak.
